A first impression

Main floor in building in the historic center, inside the ZTL in one of the most appreciated and enhanced areas in recent years for tranquility and security.

Access to the apartment, through a wonderful monumental condominium staircase, placed inside the entrance hall of the Palace, which also hides a common internal courtyard.
The property arranged on 2 levels, occupies the entire floor plan of the building on the noble second floor, while the ground floor can be reached either through an elegant internal staircase, or through an independent entrance positioned on the ground floor.

The elegance of yesteryear, the refined finishes, the large spaces that create evocative environments, distinguish this property since the entrance, which welcomes us in the first part of the living area with Venetian floors, with decorations.
Precious walnut doors with leaded glass, worked by skilled craftsmen, divide the entrance from the living room, the sleeping area and the dining room.
The generously sized kitchen is dominated by an important central fireplace, whose enlarged hood serves as a natural aspiration for stove fumes, and a pleasant terrace overlooking the inner courtyard.
A service living area and an additional room, which can also be used as an additional separate room, complete the spaces of this living wing of the house.

The separate sleeping area and on the opposite side of the dwelling, consists of 3 large bedrooms, all overlooking the main course, as well as two bathrooms and a large dressing area with full-height closets.

An elegant wooden staircase from the central hall leads to the ground floor library area and fireplace room.
