All about the location

The location of this pleasant apartment is unique with the Amstel river as its front yard. Because of the location, there is a beautiful view of the lock, as well as the traditional canal houses across the water. Within walking distance are all the interesting aspects that Amsterdam has to offer; such as theater Carré, but also the authentic Utrechtsestraat with its beautiful shops. In the immediate vicinity is a range of good restaurants and terraces. The location is also convenient to public transportation, the Ring Amsterdam and there is a direct tram to Amstelveen, where the International School is located. In addition its easy to get a parkingpermit in this area and there are more then enough parking spaces at the front, as well as in the back of the property.
