Location and context:

We are located in the heart of Gries, one of Bolzano's most popular residential neighborhoods. Known for its elegant character and typically Central European atmosphere, Gries was an autonomous municipality until 1925. Today it remains one of the most sought-after places for those who want to live in a refined, well-connected, and historically rich setting.

The area is well served, with stores, green areas, schools, and convenient connections in close proximity.
